HEADLINE: Sean Cox Receives AICP President's Award

BODY:

The Association of Insurance Compliance Professionals (AICP) hosted its Annual Conference in Phoenix, Arizona September 14 - 17. The conference was successful and well attended by insurance compliance professionals from across the country, including industry professionals, association representatives, regulators and providers of third party products and services.

During the Conference the 2014 President's Award recipients were proudly announced. The President's Award is given to a member or members who, in the view of the AICP's President, exemplify volunteerism through their dedication, hard work, and service to the AICP. First Consulting is pleased to announce that Sean Cox was a recipient of this year's President's Award. Sean is a Consultant at First Consulting and Administration, Inc. specializing in a wide variety of L&H and P&C product filings.

Sean co-chaired the AICP Website Committee and received this award in recognition of his significant contributions to the Association in pursuit of its goals relative to the Mission & Vision statements. Through his leadership, problem-solving, and attention to detail the committee was led to the successful launch of a redesigned AICP website. Insightful ideas and creative solutions resulted in turning a two year vision into a reality.

Francine D. Fetyko, President and CEO of First Consulting said, "I am proud to support the AICP and am excited to have Sean recognized for his hard work and dedication to this great organization."
